

JAN & JUL

Adventuring in the Arctic

In the Arctic it can get very cold, as cold as -70°C ! But polar bears, narwhals, and Arctic foxes stay nice and warm thanks to their soft fur and thick blubber.

Do you believe in magic?

Even if you've never seen a unicorn before, bees, butterflies and birds spread some magic when they fly from flower to flower. It's not fairy dust, it's pollen!